

Mike Pacheco Biography

Councilmember Mike Pacheco has proudly served the residents of the City of Holtville since 2018. With a background in Business Administration and over 40 years of leadership in the nonprofit sector, he brings a wealth of experience and a deep dedication to community service. On the City Council, Mike is actively involved in several key committees and is a strong advocate for affordable housing, small business support, and safer streets.

In addition, Mike remains committed to fiscal responsibility and works diligently to keep essential services—such as water and sewer rates—as low as possible for Holtville residents, while ensuring long-term sustainability and reliability.

A lifelong resident of Holtville, Mike is deeply connected to the community he serves. He lives with his wife, Cindy, and is a proud father to his daughter Alexis, who resides in San Diego.
